

Friday Flier

8th May 2015 Number 561 <http://www.deansfield.greenwich.sch.uk/>

Class 5HB visited the National Maritime Museum on Tuesday in our continuing programme of 'Against Captains Orders: a journey into the uncharted'. Children returned very enthused. Aykan told us that "it was the best thing I have ever seen. I knew it was acting but we were all drawn into it. It was very intense".

David C said "I was excited when the alarms went off and we had go seconds to lockdown. We were told 'never to leave a team mate behind'".

David M thought it was "scary, epic and made me jump."

Luke told us about the tasks the groups had to do. "It was very interactive. We were set lots of things we had to do, and we had to think about how we were going to achieve them. We had to show that we were being 'brave, loyal and true', which was what Sir Francis Drake required his crew to be".

The remaining classes to visit the show are Year 6, who visit on 18th May (6H) and 20th May (6W). The visits so far have been an enormous success—the feedback from the children is fantastic!

Also out on Tuesday, Class 3A visited the Royal Festival Hall to listen to a performance of the London Philharmonic Orchestra. For some pupils, this event was the first time they had visited a concert hall to hear a live orchestra, which gave them an intense and inspiring experience.

We were pleased to welcome Freshwater Theatre into school to work with Year 2 children today. This visit supports the children's History topic of Florence Nightingale. Children learned about Florence Nightingale, about her work in the Crimea, how she made hospitals cleaner places and showed that trained nurses and clean hospitals helped sick people get better. She was the founder of modern nursing. Children also learned how to bandage 'casualties'.

Savannah said "you put bandages on wounds to help them get better. It's important to help it stay clean".

Max told us that "Florence helped the soldiers with bandages and getting rid of rats. Also cleaning up the hospital. She didn't want more illness in the hospital."

Nina thought "rolling bandages is important so that they're easier to use. My mum told me that and she's a nurse".

The School Photographer was in school on Wednesday for Class photos. We will get these out to you as soon as they are returned.

We were pleased to hear that the metallic red scooter which was reported to us as missing from the bike shed area was found safe and sound at the child's home.

Don't forget to let us know if your child wishes to change their lunch option for after half term. The cost of lunches next term is £49.00. Please remember that lunches should be paid in advance of being taken and cheques should be made out to Deansfield Primary School. Thank you for your support.

Key Dates for your Diary

11th May: KS2 SATs

15th May: Inclusion Coffee Morning (with School Nurse)

25-29th May Half Term—school closed

1st June: No swimming for Yr 4

4th June: Year 5 Secondary Transfer Meeting in Café at 9am

11th June 5.30pm: Restorative Approaches Parents Meeting.

15th June: Yr 1 Phonics Week

20th June: DPA Summer Social

24th June: Sports Day Rec-Yr 6 at Eltham Park. Nursery sports at school.

26th June: Nursery closed

2nd July: Summer Open Evening

3rd July: Summer Discos –Rec-Yr5

9th July: Year 6 Leavers Production

10th July : Year 6 Leavers Party

17th July: Teddy Bears Picnic—Nursery closed

17th July—children break up for the Summer at the end of the day. 20th July: INSET

VALUE FOR THE MONTH: Honesty

Maths Challenge! Last weeks puzzle was:

An old Mathematics book contained this addition sum which had been marked correct by the teacher:

$$\begin{array}{r} \square \ 7 \ 2 \\ 3 \ \square \ 8 \\ \hline 4 \ 7 \ \square \end{array}$$

The three squares in the diagram are where the paper was so bad I couldn't read them. What were the three missing numbers?

The solution is: The most obvious place to start was the 0 on the bottom (don't forget to carry the 1!). Working towards the left, the next one has to be 9 to make the total 16 (+1 = 17) so we carry another 1. That means the top left digit must be empty (or a zero):

$$\begin{array}{r} 0 \ 7 \ 2 \\ 3 \ 9 \ 8 \\ \hline 4 \ 7 \ 0 \end{array}$$

This weeks puzzle is: Given only one of each letter in the alphabet, what are the smallest and largest numbers that you could write down?

Star Attendance Award this week to Class 1S with 100% attendance. Well done everyone!

Overall weekly attendance was 96.8% and overall figure so far the year is 96.8%. Thank you for sending your child into school each day.

Don't forget to follow us on TWITTER
@deansfieldsch

Next Week at Deansfield: Is SATs week for Year 6. Children have worked well through the year and revised thoroughly and are ready for the week ahead. We wish them good luck!

Thursday: Year 5 visit the park for their tennis lesson during the morning session.

Friday: School Nurse Inclusion Coffee Morning in the Training Room from 9am

Friday: Plant Sale after school. Please support if you can. Have you any donations you wish to make?

Friday: Class 2T out to the National Maritime Museum for a Pirate Workshop (packed lunch)

Friday: Class 3BP to Crofton Roman Villa (packed lunch)

Friday a.m. Year 6 to the park for a post SATs stretch of the legs!

Music at Deansfield: Forthcoming Eisteddfod fundraising events:

Saturday 16th May 7-9pm at Eltham Baptist Church

Quiz Night at the White Hart Pub, Eltham High Street on 20th May 2015

Plant Sale: Friday 15th May after school. Please support the Plant Sale after school. If you have any donations to make, please bring them into school on Friday morning. Many thanks!

Child Care problems? Please contact Caroline at the Alpha club on 07939 528678, who will be happy to help.

Weekly Weather Report

Tomorrow will be 15°C and cloudy in the morning and sunny in the afternoon. That will give you an opportunity to play outside with friends or family.

The temperature will be 16°C on Sunday. It will be cloudy and also a bit of the sun through the day. You could maybe have a BBQ. Enjoy your lovely weekend.
By Kacper and Nemesio